

WEBSTER PARISH LIBRARIES
DONATION WAIVER FORM

I understand that any gifts or donations made to the Webster Parish Libraries, either monetary or material, are accepted with no strings attached. At the point of donation, the money or materials become the sole property of the library system to be used as the system sees fit. Donated items will be evaluated under the same standards used in collection development and are accepted with the clear understanding that those not added to the collection may be disposed of as seems desirable to library system. The library will not assess a value for tax purposes.
